

Marking 5 years of Indianapolis Tennis Magazine

Somewhere in my many discs of photos is one of our garage in July 2006 with 80-some odd boxes stacked off to one side. In them were 12,000 copies of Volume 1, Issue 1 of Indianapolis Tennis Magazine with defending RCA Championships winner Robby Ginepri on the cover. Ultimately, more than 9,000 wound up being recycled (we didn't give away as many at the tournament as had been estimated) as I learned many lessons in those first few months. And, five years later, we're still learning with every issue. From the original nine distribution locations - mainly the local tennis clubs - we've grown to close to 90 throughout the metro area. I'd like to give my heartfelt "thanks" to the many people who have either written, shot photos or designed for the publication over the last five years, as well as the thousands of you who take the time to either pick up a copy or read it online. And I'd be remiss if I didn't also acknowledge the many businesses that have supported the magazine through their advertising. Five years down and who knows how many more to go, but thanks for reading and supporting Indianapolis Tennis Magazine!
