

Austin, Andrews win Les Petit As dubs

U.S. duo goes 2-for-2 in premier European tournaments

Americans Brooke Austin and Gabrielle Andrews made it a clean sweep in doubles by winning the finals of Les Petits As in Tarbes, France. The pair had previously won the doubles title in Bolton, England's Teen Tennis. Both tournaments, considered the premier events for players 14 and under in Europe, are sanctioned by the European Tennis Association. As they did in Bolton, Austin and Andrews again had to beat teammates Alexandria Stiteler and Taylor Townsend in the final. Austin lost in the first round in singles, where she was seeded first. (2-1-10)