

Austin, Andrews win Teen Tennis dubs

Singles final goes to Andrews over top-seeded Austin

Brooke Austin and Gabrielle Andrews teamed up to win the doubles title of the Teen Tennis event in Bolton, England, one of the premier events in the world for players 14 and under. It was an all-American final, as Austin and Andrews, who were seeded fourth, defeated Alexandria Stiteler and Taylor Townsend, 6-1, 6-3. The doubles title was some consolation to Austin, who lost to Andrews in the girls' singles final, 2-6, 6-0, 6-3. The tournament, sanctioned by the European Tennis Association (ETA) is the first of two the American teens will play in. Next up is Les Petits As, which begins today in Odos, France. (1-24-10)
