

Richardson, Miles to enter Midwest Hall of Fame

The USTA/Midwest Section has announced that Carrie Meyer Richardson and Mark Miles will be the 2011 inductees into its Hall of Fame during its annual meeting on December 3 in Indianapolis. Richardson, the former women's coach at Purdue, competed during the formative years of the Women's Tennis Association (WTA), as well as with the Indiana Loves of the original World Team Tennis league. Miles, who currently chairs the 2012 Super Bowl Host Committee, also served as the Chief Executive Officer of the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) Tour and was the former volunteer tournament chairman for the Indianapolis Tennis Championships.
